

Lliswerry Baptist Church

Encourage One Another

A common saying is that the church exists for the benefit of its non-members. One of the greatest challenges for any church is getting the balance between caring for one another, but also considering how we meet the needs of those from outside. Jesus says in Matthew 28:19 - Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptising them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Discipleship is not just about conversion, but about a lifelong journey.

Like many of you I was encouraged by hearing about the house groups in both services. Each group shared something different and how they support one another. The house groups and the Tuesday night bible study are both vital ways in which we can build one another up as a fellowship. As well as this, there have been outreach opportunities such as the games night. The games night at the end of January attracted a number of people from the community and was also well supported by those in the church. These are great opportunities to reach out and to show God's love to these people. As a church I believe we need to be praying for wisdom as to how we look to build on these relationships and ultimately how we can disciple people.

Therefore, what we can see from this is that we need to be effective in discipleship and evangelism. Both of these are clearly going on and for that we should be thankful, however it is always important to be reminded of this. In doing so we should be encouraged to keep praying for one another and for all that goes on in the church. As well as this pray for the opportunities to witness in our daily lives.

God bless,

Chris

About Ishmael

Ishmael / Ish (Rev'd Ian Smale) has been travelling around internationally in a 'full time' music capacity since 1970.

He has written and recorded over 400 songs (inc. Father God I Wonder) released around 40 albums of his and other writers songs and has authored 11 books.

He has been on national television / radio many times and up until recently he has ministered at all the 'Spring Harvests' except 2 (due to illness). Nowadays, when not at the Cathedral, his travelling time is divided into preaching, teaching, evangelistic concerts. Ish was ordained into the Anglican Church in 2007 and is now licensed to Chichester Cathedral as their non-stipendary, 'Missioner Deacon' and is affectionately known to the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, and congregation as 'Deacon Ish!'

He was diagnosed with Leukaemia in 2008 but is now well into remission having completed 3 years of chemotherapy treatment. He now still visits his old hospital ward as a volunteer Chaplain and also spends time praying for and encouraging many cancer sufferers.

NEWPORT NIGHTSHELTER

For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me.

During February and March Liswerry will be one of a group of churches that will be hosting the Newport Night shelter. We will be welcoming in homeless men and ladies who would normally be sleeping rough on the streets of Newport and providing them with a hot supper and drinks, a warm, safe bed for the night, toiletries, breakfast in the morning and friendship.

We can all be part of this work by praying for both our guests and the volunteers also If you are able to provide deodorants and boxers please pass these on to Diane.

Volunteer news

You may have heard, Care for the Family has moved to a new head office in Newport and are currently recruiting volunteers to join them to provide invaluable support as they seek to strengthen family life.

They are looking for volunteers who have a positive can-do attitude and an attention to detail, to help provide high quality events and stay in touch with their supporters. Typical tasks might include putting together delegate packs for events and inputting data.

Volunteers are a vital part of the team so if you would love to support and can give us some of your time, or you are looking to gain experience of the workplace, please email: volunteer@cff.org.uk
