Joy!

A theme which has come up a lot during the last few weeks has been joy. Diane Rosser spoke on it at the beginning of May and then I spoke on it as part of the series on the Fruit of the Spirit. This word can be a real challenge for us to show joy when life does not seem to be going well. Happiness can come about because of circumstances and situations that we cannot control, but joy is something that we can have in all circumstances.

The greatest joy of course comes from knowing Jesus. It was a real blessing for us when Laura-Lee Lovering came to speak about her work in Peru. Despite a number of challenges and difficulties faced by her and the pastors there, she still displayed a joy for what God was doing there. When we know the joy of knowing Jesus, then we know what God can do and we know that the eternal outcome is secure. In particular we can reflect on the words of Paul in Philippians 4:4 - Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Being able to rejoice and show joy in all situations is not always easy, but knowing Jesus and that he has secured the eternal outcome can bring the greatest joy possible.

Of course when we reflect on this joy, it is something which we should want for others. One of the important things about the fruit of the Spirit is that people can see the way in which these different traits of the fruit are in evidence in us. Therefore, what a witness it can be to show this joy and for people to see that in us every day. Let's look to be those who show the joy of the Lord in the way that we live our lives.

God bless,

Chris

Thy Kingdom Come May 30th to June 9th

Thy Kingdom Come is a global prayer movement that invites Christians around the world to pray for more people to come to know Jesus. What started in 2016 as an invitation from the Archbishops of Canterbury and York to the Church of England has grown into an international and ecumenical call to prayer.

Llisbury will be taking part along with churches and Christians from over 85 countries. You are all encouraged to commit to pray for 5 of your non-Christian family or friends each day from Thursday 30th May until Sunday 9th June. This month Chris has reminded us of the importance of the part prayer has in creating opportunities for sharing the good news of Jesus.

To help focus our prayers there will be booklets available in the coming weeks to help us record our thoughts and answers to prayer.

Also for those who would like to spend time in the quiet with God praying and reading his word the church will be open on the following days and times.

Sunday 2nd June - Focus on praying for Thy Kingdom Come during the service

Monday 3rd June 6pm to 8pm

Tuesday 4th June - 6pm to 8pm

Thursday 6th June - 6pm to 8pm

Friday 7th June - 6pm to 8pm
